Announcement Grants For Women Award 2012

The Grants for Women Award winners 2012 were comprised of outstanding women with exemplary humanitarian experience, education, challenging physical and ethnic backgrounds. They practiced volunteerism locally and internationally. A total of 314 applications were received from Eastern and Western Canada regions.

From Western Canada, Pamela Verma of Vancouver completed her medical degree at the University of British Columbia and will pursue further training in Obstetrics and Gynecology at the University of Toronto in September, 2012. Also from Vancouver, Zaira Petruf is currently enrolled as a Masters student at Simon Fraser University International Studies, Complex Emergencies Program. She obtained her Bachelor of Arts in Cultural Anthropology at the University of British Columbia.

From Eastern Canada, Kaley Roosen of Toronto is currently completing her doctorate degree in Clinical Psychology at York University. Kaley graduated as Summa Cum Laude at York University's Masters in Psychology Program. Frances Truong from Carleton University in Ottawa is a Masters of Art in Legal Studies candidate. She also obtained a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Law and Society at York University.

More information about these talented awardees will be available at the website by the end of June.
